

LIMONATA

When life gives you lemons...

Squeeze the day.

INTRODUCING SOMETHING LIGHT
FROM DARK HORSE BREWERY

American attitude. Sicilian style.

Limonata is what you get when you cross a crisp, clean pilsner with the bright zing of Sicilian lemon soda - a taste you could only find at roadside stands and coastal cafes across Southern Italy... Until now.

It's American beer, with a Sicilian twist: A light-bodied brew with just the right hit of natural lemon for a zesty, refreshing finish. Not too sweet. Not too sour. Limonata satisfies in every season. It's the official drink of optimism for those who live to squeeze the day.
